

NOTICE

Information Sought on Private Hostels Available for the Students of Kathmandu University School of Law at Dhulikhel

August 17, 2015

The Kathmandu University School of Law (KUSL) is collecting information about private student accommodation, student housing, halls of residence, student homes, student flats or student houses available for the law students in the vicinity of the School of Law.

The School does not have hostels in its campus or outside under its own management to accommodate its 80 plus students coming from all over Nepal, many of whom will be seeking private accommodation in one of these facilities. Information on accommodation in the house to be shared with landlords or families run accommodations is also welcome.

The purpose of this notice is to help these students – girls and boys - with information about the choices available to them at Dhulikhel and the cost involved.

Information sought:

Name of the Hostel or the Landlord

Area (state very clearly)

The estimated on foot travel time between the hostel and the law school

Accommodation for girls or boys
(both sexes in the same building or compound not recommended)

Private Building or Rental Building

Number of rooms

Ceiling Fan

Bed and furniture

Shared rooms available or not

Bathroom/Toilets - Attached or shared

Running cold water – hot water

Laundry facilities

Kitchen

Cooking amenities

Recreational facilities

Reading rooms available or not

Wi – Fi facilities available or not

24 hours security – safety arrangement for girl students

Breakfast provision

Optional meal plan

Closest restaurants / cafeteria / coffee house

Landlords living in the same building or not?

Security guards

Rent per month

Note: Any agreement signed between a Student and the Private Hostel or Landlord is deemed to be a private arrangement between the two parties. KUSL is unable to mediate in the event of a dispute. Students are advised to practice due care and diligence prior to any contractual commitments.

Contact: Mr Chetan Acharya, Administrative Officer, KUSL, Ph 011-490735, Email kusl@ku.edu.np